

Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. Weekend Celebrations
Planned by the Beloved Community Group
January 13-15, 2018

In January 2015, the First Baptist Church of Madison coordinated the Beloved Community Dr. King Service with the Madison Interfaith Clergy Council.

Since then the worship service is held in the Holy Family Chapel, Convent Station.

The service is a commemoration of Dr. King with clergy and lay people sharing reflections from his sermons and writings.

The Beloved Community Dr. King Celebration will include two workshops on Saturday, January 13th at 9:30 a.m. - First Baptist Church of Madison:

- a. Crucial Conversations
- b. What Will Social Justice Look Like in 2018?

Sunday, January 14th at 2:00 p.m. - Holy Family Chapel:
Reflections from Dr. King's Works and Words.

Monday, January 15th at 10:00 a.m. -
First Baptist Church of Madison: Lecture on the Justice System in America

Monday, January 15th 1 p.m. – 4 p.m.
Drew University MLK Celebration –
The Freedom School, Hall of Science Room 4
The MLK ceremony will be a lecture for Rev. Dr. Traci West on the Ethics of Non-Violent Resistance, followed with breakout sessions on “soul power and freedom” using the original Freedom School curriculum.
