ATTACHMENTS

- Sister Therese Christine Amero

WE REMEMBER....family, friends, colleagues, former students, firemen, police,
Those who died and those who assisted in so many ways on that day and the weeks after...

Gather your hearts, gather your souls
Gather your memories of love.
Gather your hurts, gather your pain gather your sacrifice in love.

And look to light, look to the hope
Look within your heart, find memories of love.
Look within your heart and you will find peace
We will remember, and we will remember.

Let remember be the balm to heal your broken heart
Let remembering be the balm that heals.
We will remember, and we will remember.
Hold your memories of love, hold to your memories.

We will remember...we will remember.
