Some of her responsibilities were visiting the sick in their homes and nursing homes, coordinating the parish communion ministers, Bereavement Ministry, and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. Sister Emily retired from her ministry at Holy Trinity Parish in 2015 at the age of ninety-four; she moved to the Sisters of Charity Motherhouse at Convent Station at that time and volunteered as receptionist at the Motherhouse and at Saint Anne Villa, Convent Station. She also served as lector at mass in the Motherhouse chapel. Sister Emily was always ready to assist in any way.

In 2018 Sister Emily visited Holy Trinity Parish and was surprised to find many parishioners, family members and friends gathered to honor her. On that day, Maple Avenue, the street in front of the parish church, was dedicated as Sister Emily's Way. The parish history states that this was a "fitting tribute to a woman of faith who was Christ to generations of Hackensackers."
