Your Story:

Hermana, as I call her, was my Spanish teacher, basketball moderator, neighbor, and friend for life! I consider her family. We had a strong bond at ICHS, and that bond continues today. Sister Marion Scranton, SC always carried and talked about her ministry while being considered one of the “cool nuns”. Very approachable. You know you would receive a loving answer even if it were a difficult topic. She was friendly to all the students, but mostly the basketball team. We made an everlasting connection through that experience. I call her Hermana, not only because she taught me Spanish, but because I consider her part of my soul and heart for the love, she has always shown me throughout my life. She helped shape me into the person I am today.

I want to honor Sister Marion Scranton, SC.
