As you reflect on Blessed Miriam Teresa's journey of life on the grounds of the Sisters of Charity Motherhouse as a college girl and a young woman in religious formation you are offered a beautiful way to come to know her as she lived on these peaceful grounds. This bulletin invites you to walk in her footsteps in varied ways. The places urge you to reflect on her experience as she encountered the beauty of living here ... this holy foundation.

The Train Station, the arrival point to our campus, brought Blessed Miriam Teresa from her native Bayonne to Convent Station during her college years and was the starting point as she entered the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth. Santa Rita Hall was her home away from home during her college days; now it is the Administration Building for the University.

The Motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity is where she entered the Sisters of Charity and lived as a postulant and novice. As a novice she was given permission to prepare conferences for those in her "band" ... a term the sisters use to identify the sisters they entered with. Her single ministerial assignment was at the Academy of Saint Elizabeth. During her 5+ years on these hallowed grounds Blessed Miriam spent many hours in our Holy Family Chapel at Mass, in meditation, praying the Stations of the Cross and conversing with our God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Following her beatification her remains were placed in a simple crypt in our chapel and her life and spirituality come alive on a wall in an adjacent room, the Legacy Room.

A path leads you through Nazareth Park, a place she frequented as she walked the Stations of the Cross. Lastly you can visit Holy Family Cemetery and visit her original burial place.

We invite and encourage you to visit these sacred grounds and walk where Blessed Miriam Teresa walked. Perhaps you may choose to make several visits to follow her footsteps and if you are at a distance Blessed Miriam Teresa invites you to take time for reflection...one step at a time.

Contemplate: Be Present to God Who Dwells in You

by Fr. Ryan Dela Pena.

Contemplation is simple. It has just been made to seem complicated. Think of the parents of a newborn baby, the first night the child is brought home and placed in the crib, the exhausted parents delightfully gaze at their daughter or son in awe, amazement and wonder... in love! That is contemplation.

Blessed Miriam Teresa was a contemplative. Before entering the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, she had a desire to enter a Carmelite Cloister and live a deeply contemplative life. God had other plans however, as her poor eyesight prevented her from entering Carmel. Blessed Miriam Teresa, through her own life and her anonymous conferences, proves to us that contemplation is not limited to behind the cloister wall.

The contemplative is one who is exceptionally aware that they possess God already. I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. In Greater Perfection, Blessed Miriam Teresa reminds us of the precious gift that each of us already possesses: God! She states: "I have God living in me constantly... I carry heaven around with me and act as though I knew it not." The latter statement of hers rings true for many of us who, outside the cloister, are constantly busy, worried, occupied, tired and bored. We often think we don't have the time or the energy to contemplate, to relish and to look at, with love and delight, God and the things of God.

This contemplative walk, through places made sacred by the presence and charity of selfless women, the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth, among them, Blessed Miriam Teresa, is an invitation for us all to slow down and be still. Blessed Miriam Teresa teaches us that: "To seek God, I need only to fix my interior gaze on the Real Presence of the Divinity in my soul. And to fix my interior gaze on Him means simply to apply my mind with earnestness of effort to the consideration of His goodness."

Dear Pilgrim, walk this Holy Ground, with earnestness of effort... Turn off your cell phone, cast aside your problems, and throw away your worry! Replace these with an awareness of God's love for you. Consciously, immerse yourself in the beauty of creation, see the colors, listen to the birds, feel the wind, breathe in the fresh air. Soak in in the stillness of the chapel where thousands of sisters have harnessed power for their boundless charity. Find in Blessed Miriam Teresa, a companion and friend for your journey. But most importantly: Contemplate: Be present to God who dwells in You.

Venerating the Relics of Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich

(adapted from Pasquale De Davide's recollection)

On a beautiful winter day, I found myself in Convent Station, New Jersey on the picturesque campus of St. Elizabeth University. Home to the Sisters of Charity of St. Elizabeth, the campus boasts the beautiful Holy Family Chapel, which was dedicated in 1909.

That day, the Chapel being open, I decided to enter and say our obligatory prayers. A serene, peaceful setting, Holy Family Chapel was the perfect place to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

After my prayers and contemplation, I was greeted by Sister Regina Bernard, who graciously asked if I would like to see the relics of Blessed Miriam Teresa. I happily and excitedly agreed.

Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich was born on March 26, 1901, in Bayonne, New Jersey to Ruthenian immigrant parents, the youngest of seven children. She was raised in the Ruthenian Greek Catholic Rite. After her mother's death in 1918, she studied at then-named College of St. Elizabeth. It was at the College of St. Elizabeth's St. Rita Hall where as a student, Miriam Teresa went on to graduate from the College of St. Elizabeth in 1923 with the highest honors. Shortly after, Miriam Teresa accepted her first teaching position.

Miriam Teresa had been discerning entering a religious order, and finally joined the Sisters of Charity of St. Elizabeth, receiving the habit in 1925. As a postulant and then a novice, she taught at the Academy of St. Elizabeth, still located on the Convent Station campus. Sister Miriam Teresa was known for her piety and devotion to the Holy Rosary. Much of her time when she wasn't working would be dedicated to prayer. Sister Miriam Teresa also wrote twenty-six conferences for the novitiate at the request of her spiritual advisor which are now compiled in the book titled Greater Perfection.

Unfortunately, in 1926 Sister Miriam Teresa's health began to decline precipitously. Sister Miriam made her vows in periculo mortis I April 1927. She died on May 8, 1927. Her funeral was held in Holy Family Chapel, and she was buried in Holy Family Cemetery on the grounds of the Sisters of Charity of St. Elizabeth Motherhouse.

In 2012, Sister Miriam Teresa was declared venerable by Pope Benedict XVI and was beatified in 2014 at the Cathedral Basilica of the Sacred Heart in Newark, New Jersey, the first time a beatification was ever held in the United States.

In 2016, the remains of Blessed Miriam Teresa Demjanovich were transferred from the crypt to a new shrine in Holy Family Chapel.

We still await and pray fervently for her canonization.

Jubilee Year of Hope

Throughout 2025 we have been celebrating the 2,025-year anniversary of the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. In less than a month, on January 6, 2026-the feast of the Solemnity of the Epiphany-the Jubilee Year will officially conclude with the closing of the Holy Door at St. Peter's Basilica. We encourage you to pray the Jubilee Prayer as we bring this holy time to completion.

Prayer for Jubilee Year

Father in heaven,
may the faith You have given us
in Your Son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of Your Kingdom.
May Your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth,
When, with the powers of the Evil vanquished,
Your glory will shine eternally.
May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
To You our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen
