

Ashleigh White – Former Student, Marylawn of the Oranges

Your Story:

Sr. Joan Digan, SC was my teacher of Latin and Mythology through my four years at Marylawn. Her classes were so interesting, and she is an engaging teacher. She cultivated my love for storytelling and language. I still have a few of her lessons - on a half sheet of paper, of course - and they always reminded me of my time at Marylawn. The Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth are an example of women using education and teaching to serve the community and empower women. I was initiated into the Catholic church after my graduation. In addition to the Latin and Mythology, Sr. Joan, SC was an inspiration of faith to me. Having spent my childhood in Catholic schools, I feel the Sisters as second mothers to me. They lead and guided our classes spiritually. I will be forever grateful to Sr. Joan, SC and the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth and hope their contributions and work are highly valued and honored
